INVITATION

to participate in the scientific conference "Legislative Systems", which will be held in a remote form on 22 April 2021

Organizer: Institute of Political and Administrative Sciences,

Jesuit University Ignatianum in Krakow, Poland

Dear Mr./Ms./Dr.,

we would like to invite you to submit your application for the scientific conference "Legislative Systems", which will be held in a remote form (MS Teams platform) on 22 April 2021. The aim of the conference is to create an opportunity for mutual exchange of knowledge and experience and to initiate discussion by researchers dealing with various aspects of legislation, particularly in the context of historical and current phenomena occurring in law, public administration and the world of politics. The event is interdisciplinary and we invite lawyers, political scientists, sociologists, economists, philosophers, communication scholars, linguists and representatives of other disciplines to participate.

Both active and passive participation in the conference is free. The proceedings will follow a workshop-like format, and each participant will have the opportunity to give a thirty-minute presentation followed by a question and discussion period. You are invited to submit abstracts of no more than 300 words no later than March 31, 2021 to the following email address: mateusz.pekala@ignatianum.edu.pl (subject: "Conference - abstract"). Qualification results will be communicated no later than April 7, 2021.
